

We have identified a problem with some 16RCL lids made in Dart's Horse Cave, Kentucky plant. To maintain customer satisfaction with Dart products, we are recalling these lids from our distributors and from their customers.

Case codes are printed on the top or bottom of each carton. The recalled cartons of 16RCL lids are sealed in white tape and have a case code that:

Begins with the letter K and
Is dated between November 11, 2008 and August 28, 2009
For example: K JUN 3 09 2C

OR

Ends with #24 and
Is dated between November 11, 2008 and August 28, 2009
For example: K JUN 10 09 1 0609 #24

Please check your warehouse, separate all 16RCL lids that bear case codes consistent with the examples shown above, and let us know how many of these cartons you have in inventory.

Please immediately stop all sales of this recalled product, including any shipments in-transit to customers.

As soon as possible, please contact your customers who have purchased this recalled product, ask them to stop using it, separate it, and return it to your warehouse.

Once we know the quantity of product you will return, then we will make arrangements for one of our trucks to pick it up and deliver a replacement order. Call us on our toll-free number, 1-800-248-5960, with the case count and a purchase order number for the replacement product. We will arrange for the pick-up and the delivery of your replacement order.

Replacement cartons will be sealed with clear or kraft tape and identified by case codes beginning with P.
OR
