In recent weeks, Forward Foods has been closely tracking the Salmonella related recall actions taken at Peanut Corporation of America (PCA). Initial recalls focused on peanut butter and peanut paste manufactured by PCA. Forward Foods has not purchased peanut butter or peanut paste from PCA. In addition, Forward Foods has always used an independent laboratory to test representative samples of its finished products as an additional assurance that our customers only get high quality safe products. This testing includes tests for pathogens such as Salmonella.

Today we were notified by PCA that this voluntary recall has been expanded to include all peanut products produced by PCA's Blakely facility since 2007. Forward Foods does procure from PCA a proprietary spiced roasted peanut for use in several of our Detour products. During our investigation of the initial recall, we had been assured by PCA that our roasted peanuts were produced in a part of the plant that was not involved in any of the recall issues. Today, reports indicate that there is a possibility of cross contamination at the PCA facility that would include roasted peanuts. In light of that information, we are initiating a voluntary recall limited to specific products. The product flavors involved are:

- Detour® brand Caramel Peanut bars
- Detour® brand Lower Sugar Caramel Peanut bars
- Detour® brand Buzz Caramel Peanut bars
- Detour® brand Chocolate Crunchy Peanut Butter bars
- Detour® brand Peanut Butter & Jelly
- Detour® brand Oatmeal Peanut Butter Chocolate Chip
- Detour® Runner brand Chocolate Peanut Butter bars
- Detour® Biker brand Chocolate Peanut Butter bars
- Detour® Core Strength Caramel Peanut bars

Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people and others with weakened immune systems. Healthy persons infected with Salmonella often experience fever, diarrhea (which may be bloody), nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain. In rare circumstances, infection with Salmonella can result in the organism getting into the bloodstream and producing more severe illnesses such as arterial infections (i.e., infected aneurysms), endocarditis and arthritis.

Though, at this time, we have confidence in the quality control of our product, it is only prudent that we notify our customers and consumers of this expanded recall from PCA and request the products be removed from the marketplace and be destroyed.

Forward Foods requests that all distributors and retailers compare the UPC codes and "Enjoy By" dates of current inventory with the products listed below.

Affected Product

Only Forward Foods products with the UPC codes listed below AND with 'Enjoy By' dates prior to February 28, 2010 are included in this recall.

Forward Foods products with the UPC codes listed below BUT with "Enjoy By" dates after March 1, 2010 are NOT affected.

Please read and complete the following forms in their entirety before discarding any product.

Distributors & Retailers:

Please immediately remove products from shelves and storage, and discard all affected inventory in your possession, by double bagging and tying off the product in dark industrial type garbage bags. To apply for any claim or replacement product, please cut out the UPC code from each display box prior to discarding. Please use the enclosed Product Destruction Log to report the amount of the inventory on hand and confirm that it has been properly discarded. Please return the completed Product Destruction Log along with your location(s), address, phone number and actual cut out UPC to:
