RE: Product Recall Notice

This is to inform you that Hostess is issuing a voluntary recall on the following material because of the potential that some of its Raspberry Zinger products contain additional moisture that may lead to mold, prior to the best by date.

Attached is the official vendor notification and the impacted lot codes.

The material that is affected is listed below:

| Material # | Product Description                           |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| 929596     | HOSTESS ZINGERS RASPBERRY 4.02Z (MFG# 702226) |

This only affects the Multipack, Single Serve, Fresh and Frozen products, with the batch numbers listed on the attached.

As you manage any distribution center and store level product withdrawals, we recommend that only those stores that pull from the impacted distribution centers be notified.

Immediately discontinue selling or distributing these products. Hostess will issue a credit to Eby for any affected product upon receipt of information.
